Dear friends, colleagues, and alumni,

As a major academic player and global citizen, The University of Tokyo’s mission is to contribute to societies and people worldwide through pioneering research and education.

In 2015, The University of Tokyo New York Office was established to facilitate international collaborations and academic exchange, mainly in the fields of engineering and medical science, from its strategic location in New York City. At our New York office, we are committed to promoting collaborative research projects, organizing seminars, and facilitating educational exchange programs, which we believe can help make a positive impact globally.

Today, I invite you to join our effort. Please sign up for our email updates and consider making a donation. Together, we can make a difference and benefit people worldwide by advancing technologies and medicine. For details, please visit our website utny.iis.u-tokyo.ac.jp.
